PR Harris School RFO

- Agency: DME
- Applicants: Charter School
- Uses: Charter Schools, District Agency Tenants
- Opportunity: Construction, design, development
- RFO Release Date: May 2016

The Government of the District of Columbia, through the Deputy Mayor for Education invites Eligible Entities to respond to a Request for Offers (“RFO”) with applications for reuse of the excess DCPS School, PR Harris.

The PR Harris School is located at 4600 Livingston Road, SE in Ward 8. The school building is 348,700 square feet.

The District has identified the PR Harris School as excess and eligible for reuse. The RFO will seek Eligible Entities to renovate and operate the PR Harris School and accommodate the current District government tenants. Any approved reuse on this site must included the University of the District of Columbia and a training center for Fire and Emergency Medical Services who are current District tenants.

Pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 38-1802.09 (2007 Supp.) charter schools have the right of first offer on all excess DCPS sites. Charter schools are Eligible Entities to the RFO and are able to partner with any organizations for construction, design or development needs.
